

2014 Educational Applications

Teaching Practice

geddit

@GedditHQ

Geddit allows students to give instant feedback about learning. It is a simple, real-time system to help teachers find out where each student is in relation to the learning, and to differentiate effectively.

Explain Everything is an easy-to-use design tool that allows you to create interactive lessons, activities and presentations. You can annotate, animate, narrate and import pictures, videos, music, and documents. It is a flexible presentation tool which could be used in many ways in the classroom and beyond

Mind Mapping

Quizlet

Quizlet is a virtual flashcard creator. Students are able to make their own lists or log in to access other peoples lists to learn whatever it is they want to memorize. It would be great for improving word recall when learning a language e.g. Te Reo.

Collaboration / Brainstorming

Popplet is a fun, easy-to-use mind mapping tool. It is a platform for your ideas. With Popplet you can capture your ideas, sort them visually, and collaborate with others in realtime. It is so simple to use that you are able to record your ideas as quickly as they come to mind.

Edmodo is a social learning platform for teachers, students and schools. It is a safe and easy way for your class to connect and collaborate. Edmodo is a secure, social learning platform for teachers, students, and schools.

Padlet is an online tool that is like a virtual sheet of paper where ākonga, teachers and staff are able to easily add and share ideas, links, pictures, attachments on a 'wall'.

Pinterest is a virtual inspiration board that allows you to 'pin' things online, just as you would pin them on a real-life bulletin board, but instead, Pinterest saves all of your pins on your account so that you can access them easily.

Answer Garden is a free web 2.0 tool you can use to obtain instant feedback or used as a form of brainstorming. It is a digital "scribble space" tool which allows students respond anonymously to open ended questions, polls or surveys.